

App for Buyers and Sellers

My Home by ShowingTime is a simple way for you to stay involved in the home buying and selling experience with your agent. Buyers can view upcoming tour information and driving directions for showings their agent schedules for them. Sellers can automatically receive showing requests, confirm them, see feedback from potential buyers and view all activity on their home(s) throughout the sales process.

- View a snapshot of showings and activities on your listings at any time
- Receive notifications of new showings and feedback, as well as ‘Showing Complete’ alerts
- Easily manage showings and feedback on multiple properties with one login
- View your showing tour as a homebuyer complete with appointment details, driving directions and more
- Communicate with your agent regarding a recent or upcoming appointment
- Calculate the distance between the property and places you frequently visit, such as work or school
